

Species recommended to be removed from the State of Utah Sensitive Species list

These species are already designated as State of Utah Sensitive Species, and the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources is proposing their removal from the list.

Birds	6
American Three-toed Woodpecker	1
Bald Eagle	1
Burrowing Owl	1
Long-billed Curlew	1
Mountain Plover	1
Whooping Crane	1
Fishes	2
Bonneville Cutthroat Trout	1
Lahontan Cutthroat Trout	1
Mammals	6
Big Free-tailed Bat	1
Brown (Grizzly) Bear	1
Canadian Lynx	1
Gray Wolf	1
Mogollon Vole/Mexican Vole	1
Silky Pocket Mouse	1
Mollusks	1
Kanab Ambersnail	1
Amphibians	1
Great Plains Toad	1
Reptiles	11
Common Chuckwalla	1
Desert Iguana	1

Desert Night Lizard	1
Great Plains ratsnake	1
Mojave Rattlesnake	1
Sidewinder	1
Smooth Greensnake	1
Speckled Rattlesnake	1
Western Banded Gecko	1
Western Threadsnake	1
Zebra-tailed Lizard	1
Total	27